

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota is preparing to celebrate its 100th birthday; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota's businesses, from the smallest to the largest, are the heart and soul of this great state; and,

WHEREAS, Montgomery's Furniture in Alexandria and Madison, South Dakota, is celebrating 100 years of service to these two communities and the state; and,

WHEREAS, during these 100 years, four generations have run Montgomery's Furniture--starting with George Montgomery, then W. R. Montgomery, Gilbert Loomer, George Loomer, Jim Loomer, and presently Todd Loomer and Clark Sinclair; and,

WHEREAS, Montgomery's Furniture can be proud of its success in South Dakota, in some measure attributable to the well-trained employees who have exhibited initiative, dedication to their task, and a spirit of independence;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 14, 1988, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Ninth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight
